

Who loads the truck at my house?

Prices provided by Moving Japan include the truck and one driver. You are encouraged to help load the truck. If additional labor is required, or items are too large for one person to handle please contact Moving Japan as special truck arrangements will be required.

Except for full service moves, all items must be packed with shipping mark identification, and be ready for immediate loading to truck.