

Customs have the right by law to inspect any shipment. This ranges from a simple X-Ray inspection of container, through to container opening and physical inspection. Costs of X-Rays, Physical inspection, associated handling, storage costs etc are billed to your account at cost. * It is important not to send items that will attract intense customs scrutiny & likely penalties.